

2016 Zebulon Farm Fresh Market Vendors

The Fat Radish Farm/Liberty Poultry -Zebulon, NC - Farmer Hayes Lindsey's great, great grandfather Charles David Beddingfield started farming north of Zebulon, North Carolina in the late 1800's. The next two generations continued farming; practicing methods passed down from previous generations. The farm was briefly leased out to local farmers, until Hayes moved to the farm in 2010 with the intentions of continuing the family farm. Only this time, practicing strict regenerative method that are beneficial to plants, animal, people and the land. The Fat Radish and Liberty Poultry provide vegetables and herbs grown on land naturally till fertilized by chickens, free of pesticides and herbicides and free range chickens and eggs.

Simple Soap and Balm - Zebulon, NC – Locally handmade, all-natural soaps in 20 sensational varieties, and also offering lip balm, body butter, and some unique specialty soaps specifically made for the market.

Brantley's Home Nursery – Middlesex, NC – Family owned and operated nursery offering hanging baskets, potted plants, flowers, mums, vegetable plants and cantaloupes.

Sprout's Gift and Botanicals – Zebulon, NC- Locally made and handcrafted blended oils, body washes and scrubs. This local mother of four began making her body care products because of her daughter's allergies and super sensitive skin. She has really enjoyed creating these skin care products and it has opened her eyes to a new holistic way of living. Using herbs in her products is fun and helps to keep her centered. She hopes to pass on some of that peace and knowledge to others.

Baxter's Bees – Zebulon, NC – Baxter's Bees is a family-owned business dedicated to saving the world through restoring the honeybee population one hive at a time. This locally owned small business offers local honey, soap, lotion, body butters, beeswax, propolis, pollen, lip balm and lotion bars.

A Cup of Sunshine Zebulon, NC – Locally owned business offering fresh squeezed lemonades, and orangeades.

Martha's Kitchen – Knightdale, NC – Mrs. Martha specializes in homemade baked goods as well as homemade canned goods. Pecan and fruit pies, cheese straws, candy, cakes, brownies, cookies, bread, pickles, jams, jellies, relish, pickled vegetables are just a few of the items make by Mrs. Martha.

Conveniently Yours – Zebulon, NC - Custom made, handcrafted tiffany style stained glass, sun-catchers and jewelry.

Rob's Fresh Produce – Bailey, NC - Rob Glover, owner of Rob's Fresh Produce, is a native of Bailey, NC who has worked on his family farm raising sweet potatoes, soy beans, and cotton since a very young age. Rob decided to diversify his operation in 2003 by raising and selling fresh produce and working with Community Supported Agriculture. Rob has a passion to provide the community with safe, fresh, and local produce.

Purified Auras – Zebulon, NC – This local soap vendor uses only essential oils, and herbs to create all natural soaps, aromatherapy sprays, wax melts, and bath fizzies. Her products are handmade and contain NO artificial colorants, or fragrances.

Heavenly Hope Candles – Wilson, NC – Owner Karen Iradi sells handmade soy candles that are eco-friendly and made from sustainable ingredient. A Heavenly Hope Candle will leave your home smelling amazing for long periods of time.

Cooterville Farms – Garner, NC – Farmer Tamryn Coots moved to North Carolina in high school and attended North Carolina State University. Once her education was completed, Tamryn worked for several years as a veterinary technician. After some health issues, Tamryn decided she wanted to eat healthier and know where her food came from. With her background, it was a logical move to start farming. In 2011 Farmer Tamryn started farming full time.

Fabled Treasures/Carolina Packhouse - Middlesex, NC – Revka Sterns is an artisan jewelry designer who captures stories in metal. Her husband Robert constructs handcrafted tobacco stick flags.