

Gilbert Todd Jr.

Gilbert Todd Jr. is a Zebulon, NC native and incoming Town Manager of Zebulon with over 25 years of professional experience in civil and military service, and a proven track record of community building, budget management, and leadership throughout his career.

Enlisting in 1997, Gilbert spent 13 years serving in the United States Air Force Reserves as an Aircraft Electrician, TSGT, E6 with the 916th Aircraft Maintenance Squadron at Seymour Johnson Air Force Base in Goldsboro, NC. After being honorably discharged from USAF active duty, Gilbert went on to work for the United States Department of Defense, Wake County, the City of Raleigh, and most recently for the Town of Zebulon.

Gilbert has a Bachelor of Science in Divinity from Grimke Seminary in Richmond, VA and an Associate Degree in Applied Science, Aviation Maintenance Management from the Community College of the Air Force in Goldsboro, NC. He is also an active member of the North Carolina City/County Managers Association.

Gilbert is most proud of being married to Winter Todd and being a father to his four children: Lydia, Eden, Gibson, and Gideon. In his personal time, Gilbert serves as Discipleship Pastor at Vision Church in Raleigh where he facilitates weekly gatherings designed to strengthen others in their faith.